

“Dreams are fragile.
That’s why they need protection.”

Judith Maurer, CEO
LOW LOAD INSURANCE SERVICES, INC.

“I had a dream 24 years ago. It was to create an insurance resource that served fee-only financial advisors by providing the service, products, and education needed to protect their clients’ wealth and security. Over the years, I’ve nurtured my dream. I’ve watched it grow like a new baby, and delighted in seeing it become a solid, stable company that’s highly regarded by our clients. Today, Low Load is the nation’s premier insurance resource that works solely with fee-only financial advisors and their clients. Then, as now, we remain unwavering in our commitment to a level of service seldom seen in this drive-through world of ours. After all, many dreams depend on us.”
